Public Encouraged to Attend Greater Yellowstone Geotourism
Project Community Forums

(HELENA) – The National Geographic Society, Travel Montana, and Greater Yellowstone Coalition are hosting community forums in Red Lodge, Ennis, Bozeman and Livingston May 12-21. At the forums participants will discuss sites and events to include on a new National Geographic MapGuide that will celebrate and help sustain the world-class natural and cultural heritage of the Greater Yellowstone region.

Governor Brian Schweitzer encourages residents and visitors from around the area to attend and learn about the project and nominate sites for the map. More information is available at <http://www.yellowstonegeotourism.net>.
